A 165	Continued From page 3 On at 9:45 AM, an interview was conducted with Resident #4 during which he reported that $12,000 dollars was stolen from his closet. He stated he called the police, but the facility has done nothing. The Corporate Consultant provided a packet of information which revealed an email dated , from a past Executive Director (ED) to the corporate office. The email explained that in , the daughter of resident #4 had talked with the ED about $3500 dollars missing from the resident's room. The email further stated that police investigated the incident on , after a follow-up visit by the daughter found continued concerns with missing money. The packet included the policeman's badge number. On at 11:59AM, an interview was conducted with the Corporate Consultant during which she was asked to provide the adverse incident report regarding the incident. She stated that the facility could not find an adverse incident report for . . . regarding the missing money for Resident #4. Class III	A 165
