Findings: Upon arrival to the facility at 9:35AM on _____, staff B, holding a full laundry basket under her arm, answered the door and directed the surveyor to staff A. Staff A said she was a caregiver working from 7AM until 3PM that day. She stated she had been working at the facility for 4 months. Staff A provided a tour of the facility and identified all 7 residents to the surveyor. She also stated staff B would be working from 7AM-3PM on the day of the survey. Staff A and B were the only people working in the facility at the time. Staff A called the administrator who said she would come to the facility shortly. After the administrator arrived, staff A or B were not seen again. 1) Request to review the personnel records for staff A & B found there were no records. On _____ at 12:30PM, the administrator confirmed she did not have any documentation to show that either staff A or B had current certification in _____ and First Aid. 2) Review of the staff schedule for the month of _____ revealed one 24-hour caregiver for each day in the month. A census of 7 residents required a minimum of 212 direct care staff hours each week. The facility, by having only one caregiver each day, had only 168 staff hours	A 079
