She had 2+ _____ to both _____ and ankles. The director of nursing was present, confirmed the findings, said she did not know why the resident was not wearing the stockings and said the resident had a history of refusing to wear them. At 11 a.m. on _____, day shift caregiver H said the night shift caregiver was responsible for putting the stockings on the resident and she herself did not know why it was not done. At 11:05 a.m. on _____ nurse said she did not know why the resident was not wearing the stockings and that she had not been informed by any of the caregivers that the resident refused to wear them on that morning. She too said the resident does refuse to where them at times. However, review of the resident's record revealed there was no documentation to indicate the resident ever refused to wear the stockings and no documentation to indicate, if she had notified the health care provider of the refusals. (b) Each assisted living facility shall maintain the written policies and procedures in a manner that makes them readily available at the licensee's physical address for review by a legally authorized entity. If the policies and procedures are maintained in an electronic format, assisted living facility staff must be readily available to access the policies and procedures and produce the requested information. For purposes of this section, "readily available" means the ability to immediately produce the policies and procedures, either in electronic or paper format, upon request. (c) The written policies and procedures must be readily available for inspection by each resident; each resident's legal representative, designee, surrogate, guardian, attorney in fact, or case manager; each resident's estate; and such additional parties as authorized in writing or by law. (6) REVOCATION OF LICENSE, FINES OR SANCTIONS. For a violation of any part of this rule, the Agency for Health Care Administration may seek any remedy authorized by chapter 429, part I, or chapter 408, part II, F.S., including, but not limited to, license revocation, license suspension, and the imposition of administrative fines.
