Facilities that offer residents a variety of food choices through a select menu, buffet style dining, or family style dining are not required to document what is eaten unless a health care provider's order indicates that such monitoring is necessary. However, the food items that enable residents to comply with the therapeutic diet must be identified on the menus developed for use in the facility. 2. The facility must document a resident's refusal to comply with a therapeutic diet and provide notification to the resident's health care provider of such refusal. (f) For facilities serving three or more meals a day, no more than 14 hours must elapse between the end of an evening meal containing a protein food and the beginning of a morning meal. Intervals between meals must be evenly distributed throughout the day with not less than 2 hours nor more than 6 hours between the end of one meal and the beginning of the next. For residents without access to kitchen facilities, snacks must be offered at least once per day. Snacks are not considered to be meals for the purposes of _____ the time between meals. (g) Food must be served attractively at safe and palatable temperatures. All residents must be encouraged to eat at tables in the dining areas. A supply of eating ware sufficient for all residents, including adaptive equipment if needed by any resident, must be on _____. (h) A 3-day supply of nonperishable food, based on the number of weekly meals the facility has _____ with residents to serve, must be on _____ at all times. A 093	Continued From page 15 The supply must consist of foods that can be stored safely without refrigeration. Water sufficient for drinking and food preparation must also be stored, or the facility must have a plan for obtaining water in an emergency, with the plan coordinated with and reviewed by the local disaster preparedness authority. This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on menu review, observations and interview, the facility did not maintain a 3 day supply of fruits and vegetable for the 6 residents of the facility in the event of an emergency and did not date, document substitution or use the correct menu for the day. Findings: Review of the 4 menus posted for the day revealed there were no dates. On at 12:15 PM, the administrator said the facility was using cycle 1 menu for the current week, the menu for the day noted chicken, rice, peas, mixed salad and ice cream. The administrator said at the time she had ordered pizza because the power temporarily went out and the staff was cooking the chicken for lunch and could not finish it. Review of a Menu Cycle Dates log that was posted on the refrigerator revealed for the week of cycle 2 menu was to be in use. The facility used this list as evidence of what menu was used for a given period. The administrator said the facility staff were not using the correct menu. She said cycle 2's menu	A 093
