This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on interview and record review, the facility failed to ensure that 2 of 3 sampled employees, Employee B and E, received a preservice orientation of at least 2 hours before interacting with residents. The findings include: During an interview with the Administrator on at 12:20 PM she was asked for proof of the orientation training for Employee B (hired). She stated Employee B received orientation training and provided a certificate, which showed it was a one hour training. The Administrator was asked if Employee B was still working at the facility. She stated Employee B decided she could no longer work sometime in but she did not know the date. Record review of the employee file for Employee E, hired , found an orientation checklist in her employee file that was not complete and did not have the amount of time spent on the training provided.
