A resident placed in a facility on a temporary emergency basis by the Department of Children and Families pursuant to Section 415.105 or 415.1051, F.S., is exempt from this requirement for up to 30 days. 1. As part of its resident elopement response policies and procedures, the facility must make, at a minimum, a daily effort to determine that at risk residents have identification on their persons that includes their name and the facility's name, address, and telephone number. Staff trained pursuant to paragraph 59A-36.011(10)(a) or (c), F.A.C., must be generally aware of the location of all residents assessed at high risk for elopement at all times. 2. The facility must have a photo identification of at risk residents on file that is accessible to all facility staff and law enforcement as necessary. The facility's file must contain the resident's photo identification upon admission or upon being assessed at risk for elopement subsequent to admission. The photo identification may be provided by the facility, the resident, or the resident's representative. (b) Facility Resident Elopement Response Policies and Procedures. The facility must develop detailed written policies and procedures for responding to a resident elopement. At a minimum, the policies and procedures must provide for: 1. An immediate search of the facility and premises, 2. The identification of staff responsible for implementing each part of the elopement response policies and procedures, including specific duties and responsibilities,	A 032

When the Administrator came to the living room, she did not see Resident #1 and asked for her. Then, they looked for the resident inside the house and outside and could not find her. The Administrator took the car and went to look for Resident #1 at a shopping center nearby because the resident had mentioned that she needed to go to [department store], but she was not at the store, so the Administrator called the police. Around 3 days later the resident was found in a hospital. Staff B stated that she did not hear anything as the resident did not make any noise. During a telephone interview on at 1:13 PM, the Administrator stated that the day Resident #1 eloped, the resident had lunch and was seated in the living room. The Administrator said that she was around the house, then noticed that Resident #1 was not in the house. The Administrator said that probably minutes passed since the last time she saw the resident, and that Staff B was doing something in the kitchen. Immediately, they began looking around the house for Resident #1 without success, so she drove around the neighborhood and still could not find the resident. Afterwards, the Administrator said that she called the police. The Administrator stated that days later Resident #1 called her from the hospital and told her that she did not want to come to the facility. The Administrator further stated that after the incident, she installed alarms in the doors as a measure to prevent any further reoccurrences.
