CZ814	Continued From page 1 Findings Included: A review of the facility's staffing schedule was conducted on . The staffing schedule only contained the caregiver's first names, no last names were indicated on the schedule. The schedule revealed that Staff B was scheduled to work 24 hour shifts starting every Tuesday at 8:00pm and ending at 8:00pm every Wednesday for the entire month of . The review also revealed that Staff C was scheduled to work 24 hour shifts every Friday starting at 8:00pm, all day Saturday, and ending on Sunday at 8:00pm (72 hours in a row) for the entire month of . The schedule for the entire month of had only 1 care staff person assigned to work on every shift. A review of the the facility's BGS Roster on revealed that Staff B and Staff C's names were not on the roster. An attempted review of the employee records for Staff B and Staff C, on , revealed that the facility did not have the records on the premises. In an interview with Staff A at 12:00 on , she stated the none of the employee files were on the facility premises, as the Administrator had told her the records were at her home. Staff A stated she was not sure what Staff B's last name was, but was able to identify her by looking at a photo from Staff's B's Level II Background Screening profile. Staff A also stated that she did not know what Staff C's last name was and there was no way to find out without the employee records being available for review. Unclassified	CZ814

An interview was conducted with Staff A at 1:45pm on In the interview, she was asked if there were enough staff working on all shifts to meet the needs of the residents. Her answer was that she felt there should be at least 2 staff people during the day shift, at least, because all of the residents had injuries and they could be violent and unpredictable. She said that all of the other staff members felt the same way and that they had talked to the Administrator about it. With staff people, working by themselves, it was hard in case of an emergency or an incident happening, because they could not watch all the residents like they needed to. She stated she was always by herself working in the facility, all the staff caregivers were. If an emergency situation happened, she would always first call the Administrator, who would sometimes tell her not to call 911 for help. She stated would still call 911 if something happened, because she would not be able to handle the situation otherwise.
