A 030	Continued From page 6 contract agreement, facility's house rules and policies & procedures on that document that the assisted living facility shall give a resident 45-day notice of discharge. (Photographic Evidence Obtained) Resident #4 went missing/eloped from the assisted living facility, was not able to be located on at 12:53 PM, which the local law enforcement agency was notified. On at 10:04 AM, a hospital notified the assisted living facility and stated that he was for monitoring after he eloped from the facility and brought to the hospital by the local law enforcement agency. On at 7 PM, the assisted living facility received a call from the local law enforcement officer saying that resident #4 was well and good, ready to return to the assisted living facility. The facility informed the law enforcement officer that resident #4 could not return to the assisted living facility because he was officially discharged. Review of the facility's elopement policies and procedures documented that after a resident elope from the assisted living facility three times a 45-day notice to discharge will be given and a meeting will be scheduled with the Administrator, legal representative, and resident. There was no documented evidence that resident #4 was given a 45-day notice of discharge by the assisted living facility. On at 3:30 PM, an interview with the Administrator confirmed the finding.
