A 030	Continued From page 6 Review of the facility's Admission/Retention/Discharge Policy documented the following: If the resident declines in function and is determined by the Administrator and/or the healthcare provider that a higher level of care is needed, the Administrator will assist in the process of transfer to a higher level of care within the scope of the facility's license to an appropriate facility. Review of Resident #4's file revealed an admission date of _____ with diagnoses to include _____ and _____. She had _____ and was alert and oriented with some _____. Review of an Interdisciplinary Report dated _____ at 1:00 AM documented, on the resident's third day at the facility, she was found lying on the floor during a room check. The resident is said to have stated she did not know how she got on the floor. Further review of the document revealed that on _____ Resident #4 was observed for a _____ and post move to the MCU. The resident was moved to the MCU on _____ after 1 _____. However, no assessment or document was available for review in the file documenting the reason for the move, prior to Resident #4 being placed in the MCU. A further review of Resident #4's file and documents also revealed the resident signed her Resident Agreement and was self-admitted to the ALF. She was moved into the MCU on _____, 4 days after being admitted to the facility. Review of resident's file and documents did not reveal that the resident, the family, the Physician, the Representative or designee was notified that she was being moved into the MCU.	A 030
