Findings included: On at 7:40 AM observation of a medication pass revealed the medication was taken out of the unlocked cabinet located in the employees' room by Staff B. Staff B washed her, dried them, and put on gloves. The medication observation record (MOR) was checked for which medication the resident needed to receive. The MOR and medication were taken to Resident #4. The pack was opened, and medication was put one by one on the staff's gloves and placed it in a small cup, and then given to the resident. Staff B poured some water in a cup. The resident was told what medication was being given, and prompted to take it. Resident #4 was then given the tablets and some water. The resident then swallowed the pills and drank some water. Staff initialed the MOR. Improper procedures followed. On at 7:45 AM Staff B stated regarding having placed the medication into her gloved prior to giving it to the resident, "I have done it like that, and nobody told me that it was not correct."
