Missing documentation will not be the basis for administrative action against a facility if the facility can demonstrate that it has made a good faith effort to obtain the required documentation from the appropriate party. A documented request for such missing documentation made by the facility administrator within 72 hours of the resident's admission will be considered a good faith effort. The documented request must include the name, title, and phone number of the person to whom the request was made and must be kept in the resident's file. This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on interview and record review, the facility, with a limited mental health license, failed to maintain an up-to-date admission and discharge log that clearly identified one out of five sampled residents (Resident #2) as a mental health resident. Findings included: Review of the Florida Health Finder database revealed that the facility had a license with a limited mental health specialty component. On at 9:52 AM, the Administrator stated that Resident #2's was a mental health resident. A review of the facility's admission/discharge log showed Resident #2 was admitted on The facility had a change of ownership on Further review showed Resident #2 was not identified as a mental health resident.
