A 167	Continued From page 1 of any change in status that would prevent the resident from returning to the facility. Until such written notice is received, the agreed upon daily, weekly, or monthly rate may be charged by the facility unless the resident's medical condition prevents the resident from giving written notification, such as when a resident is comatose, and the resident does not have a responsible party to act on the resident's behalf; (i) A provision stating whether the facility is affiliated with any religious organization and, if so, which organization and its relationship to the facility; (j) A provision that, upon determination by the administrator or health care provider that the resident needs services beyond those that the facility is licensed to provide, the resident or the resident's representative, or agency acting on the resident's behalf, must be notified in writing that the resident must make arrangements for transfer to a care setting that is able to provide services needed by the resident. In the event the resident has no one to represent him or her, the facility must refer the resident to the social service agency for placement. If there is disagreement regarding the appropriateness of placement, provisions outlined in section 429.26(8), F.S., will take effect; (k) A provision that residents must be assessed upon admission pursuant to subsection 59A-36.006(2), F.A.C., and every 3 years thereafter, or after a significant change, pursuant to subsection (4), of that rule; (l) The facility's policies and procedures for self-administration, assistance with self-administration, and administration of medications, if applicable, pursuant to rule 59A-36.008, F.A.C. This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on record review and interview, the facility failed to provide an addendum to the resident contract dated and signed by the resident or resident's representative indicating an increase in the monthly rate for one out of seven sampled residents (Resident #1). Findings included: Review of Resident #1's record revealed an admission date of 6/19/19. Review of Resident #1's contract revealed it was signed by the resident's representative on 6/19/19/ Further review revealed a monthly sum of $1800 that was crossed out, a monthly sum of $790 that was crossed out, a monthly sum of $2290 that was crossed out and a monthly sum of $2689 with a date of 1/1/23. Further review revealed a note stating 'long term $1775, SS $914'. Review of Resident #1's record revealed no documentation of a notice of rate change signed by the resident or the resident's representative. During an interview on 8/14/23 at 11:08 AM The Administrator stated "She pays $2689 a month. Long term care pays $1775 and social security pays $913. I don't have a notification form. I didn't know I needed that. I just called her and let her know." Class III	A 167
