A 030	Continued From page 7 to confirm if the case was closed, she stated no, that it was still open and active. It was explained to the investigator that Resident #1 had story had changed now because the mother had come twice to facility to visit her. Also, resident #1 mother had asked Resident #1's resident #3(resident#1's roommate) to call her on her personal cell phone so she can speak with resident #1. A review of the visitor's log and the mother never signed in or out of the facility when visiting on and There was no documented evidence that the mother's visits on both days were authorized. On at 11:55 AM, called the Administrator to explain that caregiver A stated the mother had visited twice during an active investigation. The Administrator expressed she was very upset and that she had told all staff to not let the mother in the facility to visit resident#1 until the investigator and law enforcement had told her it was okay. On at 4:57 PM, a telephone interview with the investigator stated that the investigation will be closed at the end of day. However, law enforcement is still conducting their investigation on the mother's home in Lake County. On at 5:10 PM, a telephone interview with the Administrator confirmed the findings.
