(5) Assistance with the self-administration of medication by an unlicensed person as described in this section shall not be considered administration as defined in s. 465.003. 59A-36.008 (3) ASSISTANCE WITH SELF-ADMINISTRATION. (a) Any unlicensed person providing assistance with self-administration of medication must be _____ or older, trained to assist with self administered medication pursuant to the training requirements of Rule 59A-36.011, F.A.C., and must be available to assist residents with self-administered medications in accordance with procedures described in Section 429.256, F.S. and this rule. (b) In addition to the specifications of Section 429.256(3), F.S., assistance with self-administration of medication includes, orally advising the resident of the name and dosage of the medication and verbally prompting a resident to take medications as prescribed. (c) In order to facilitate assistance with self-administration, trained staff may prepare and make available such items as water, juice, cups, and spoons. Trained staff may also return unused doses to the medication container. Medication, which appears to have been contaminated, must not be returned to the container. (d) Trained staff must observe the resident take the medication. Any concerns about the resident's reaction to the medication or suspected noncompliance must be reported to the resident's health care provider and documented in the resident's record.	A 052

A 052	Continued From page 3 (e) When a resident who receives assistance with medication is away from the facility and from facility staff, the following options are available to enable the resident to take medication as prescribed: 1. The health care provider may prescribe a medication schedule that coincides with the resident's presence in the facility, 2. The medication container may be given to the resident, a friend, or family member upon leaving the facility, with this fact noted in the resident's medication record, 3. The medication may be transferred to a pill organizer pursuant to the requirements of subsection (2), and given to the resident, a friend, or family member upon leaving the facility, with this fact noted in the resident's medication record, or 4. Medications may be separately prescribed and dispensed in an easier to use form, such as unit dose packaging. (f) Assistance with self-administration of medication does not include the activities detailed in Section 429.256(4), F.S. (g) As used in Section 429.256(4)(h), F.S., the terms "judgment" and "discretion" mean interpreting vital signs and evaluating or assessing a resident's condition. (h) All trained staff must adhere to the facility's control policy and procedures when assisting with the self-administration of medication. This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on observation, interview, and record review, the facility failed to orally advise three of three sampled residents of the medication name and dosage when assisting with self-administration (Residents #2, #3, and #7). A 052	Continued From page 4 The findings include: Resident #2 was interviewed at 11:20 a.m. on . Resident #2 explained the names of medications are not always explained when he receives assistance with self-administration of medication. Employee A, Med Tech, was observed assisting Resident #2 with medication self-administration on at 12:10 p.m. Employee A opened the medication package, placed it in a cup, then provided the medications without an explanation of what the name or dose of the medications were. Employee A was then observed assisting Resident #7 with medication self-administration on at 12:17 p.m. Employee A opened the medication package, placed it in a cup, then provided the medications without an explanation of what the name or dose of the medications were. At 12:25 p.m. on , Employee A was observed assisting Resident #3 with medication self-administration. Employee A provided the medications to Resident #3 without an explanation of what the medication name or dosage was. On at 12:35 p.m., Employee A was interviewed where she explained she did not routinely tell residents the medications they were taking. On resident record review revealed no medication waivers had been signed by Residents #2, #3, or #7.	A 052
