This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on observation, and interview, the facility failed to have sufficient cooling devices on site and to maintain room temperature at or below 81 degrees in the event of the loss of primary power. Findings: In an interview on at 7:50AM, the Administrator was asked how many cooling devices were on site, the administrator stated, "We have eight fans with four of them in the resident rooms". In an interview on at 7:51AM, the Administrator was asked about the cooling space area, the administrator stated, "It is the main common area, and it could fit 24 people". An observation on at 7:58AM, showed one portable cooling device and one fan in the main common area. (Photographic evidence obtained) In an interview on at 7:59AM, the Administrator was asked where the other cooling devices are, the Administrator stated, "The others are in storage at Salmos #5 facility". Missing documentation will not be the basis for administrative action against a facility if the facility can demonstrate that it has made a good faith effort to obtain the required documentation from the appropriate party. A documented request for such missing documentation made by the facility administrator within 72 hours of the resident's admission will be considered a good faith effort. The documented request must include the name, title, and phone number of the person to whom the request was made and must be kept in the resident's file. This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on interview and record review, the facility failed to ensure that its admission and discharge log identified its mental health residents. Findings include: A review of the facility's admission and discharge log revealed that the log did not identify the facility's mental health residents. During an interview on at 11:45AM, when informed that the admission and discharge log did not identify the mental health residents, the Administrator reviewed the log and acknowledged the issue.
