I went through the all the files and could not find anything on her. I know that she was only here for a short period of time about a year and a half ago. I know we had a contract for her fully signed - that I know, because I signed it, and the family requested it when she left. She got the appropriate refund, and I have the documentation for that. Sometimes when they are here that short of time, they don't make it in a binder." Class III	A 162
