The findings: On / at approximately 9:30 AM an interview with the ALF owner was conducted. Requested verification of employee #3's level II background screening. The owner stated the information was in the computer. The owner stated she had called the agency for health care administration (AHCA) background screening unit, but they could not give her the results. The owner stated she was told she needed to access the background screening website for the information. The owner logged onto her computer, but was unable to access the information. The owner has never registered with the background screening unit to use the system. A call was placed to the AHCA background screening unit. The unit verified that employee #3 did have a current certified nursing assistant (CNA) license, but there was not a level II background screen. Class II	{AZB15}
