0025 - Resident Care - Supervision - 429.26(7) FS; 58A-5.0182(1) FAC

Based on review of resident records, and interview with administrative staff, the facility failed to provide personal supervision as appropriate for 1 (Resident #2) of 3 residents reviewed.

The findings include:

A review of Resident #2's resident observation record revealed documentation which was initially undated, and which staff later added to the record for at 11:00 a.m. This documentation revealed the resident was on that day and was wanting to go home to an address in Englewood. The note goes on to say the Ombudsman found him wandering outside, and brought the resident back into the facility. There was a note dated which indicated they have and will continue to do 30 minute checks on the resident to ensure the resident's safety. There was no documentation of any resident
