A 093	Continued From page 14 (c) All regular and therapeutic menus to be used by the facility must be reviewed annually by a licensed or registered dietitian, a licensed nutritionist, or a registered dietetic technician supervised by a licensed or registered dietitian, or a licensed nutritionist to ensure the meals meet the nutritional standards established in this rule. The annual review must be documented in the facility files and include the original signature of the reviewer, registration or license number, and date reviewed. Portion sizes must be indicated on the menus or on a separate sheet. 1. Daily food servings may be divided among three or more meals per day, including snacks, as necessary to accommodate resident needs and preferences. 2. Menu items may be substituted with items of comparable nutritional value based on the seasonal availability of fresh produce or the preferences of the residents. (d) Menus must be dated and planned at least 1 week in advance for both regular and therapeutic diets. Residents must be encouraged to participate in menu planning. Planned menus must be conspicuously posted or easily available to residents. Regular and therapeutic menus as served, with substitutions noted before or when the meal is served, must be kept on file in the facility for 6 months. (e) Therapeutic diets must be prepared and served as ordered by the health care provider. 1. Facilities that offer residents a variety of food choices through a select menu, buffet style dining, or family style dining are not required to document what is eaten unless a health care provider's order indicates that such monitoring is necessary. However, the food items that enable residents to comply with the therapeutic diet must be identified on the menus developed for use in	A 093

A 093	Continued From page 16 amount of food portions per day in order to meet the resident's nutritional needs with respect to the vegetable group. Findings included: Record review of the facility menu for the noon meal for Friday, was pasta, fish, carrots, mixed salad and and fresh fruit. Observation of the noon meal at approximately 12:10pm on revealed the following: pasta; meat sauce; mixed vegetables; and fruit cup. There was no salad was served. Interview with the assistant administrator at 12:20pm on indicated that "the salad was not prepared due to some of the residents not liking it." However, no other dish had been made as a substitute in its place, and the assistant administrator could not explain why this occurred. Class III	A 093
