(f) Maintaining a written record, updated as needed, of any significant changes, any illnesses that resulted in medical attention, changes in the method of medication administration, or other changes that resulted in the provision of additional services. This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on resident record review and interview, the facility failed to maintain written documentation of a significant change and document if the healthcare provider and/or legal responsible party was notified for 1 of 2 sampled resident (#4) as required. Findings: Resident #4's review revealed admission date During tour observation, resident #4 was not in the facility. It was reported that this morning at 8 AM, resident #4 requested to be transported to the local hospital because she was not feeling well and wanted to go to the hospital. There was no documentation in the facility's progress notes regarding this information and no evidence that the physician or family was notified. On at 11:30 AM, an interview with the Assisted Living Facility (ALF) Manager confirmed the finding. Class III	A 025
