IMPOSITION OF CIVIL FINES

Dear Licensee:

On November 21, 2024, the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), Residential Care Services completed a follow-up visit at your facility. This letter is formal notice of the imposition of civil fines on the license for your adult family home, located at 1128 Castlerock Ave, Wenatchee, by the State of Washington, Department of Social and Health Services, pursuant to the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 70.128.160 and Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 388-76-10940.

The civil fines are based on the following violations of the RCW and/or WAC determined by the department in your adult family home and described in the attached Statement of Deficiencies (SOD) report dated November 21, 2024.

Civil Fines

WAC 388-76-10265 (1)(d) Tuberculosis- Testing- Required. $200.00

The licensee failed to ensure tuberculosis (TB) testing was completed within three days of hire for one hired staff. This failure placed residents at potential risk for exposure to a communicable disease.

This is an uncorrected deficiency previously cited on October 30, 2024.

WAC 388-76-10895 (1)(a)(2)(b)(3)(a)(b)(c)(d) Emergency evacuation drills- Frequency and participation.

$300.00

The licensee failed to ensure six residents participated in the annual evacuation drill and that two residents who refused to participate had their refusal documented in their Negotiated Care Plan (NCP). These failures placed the residents at risk of harm in the event of an emergency.

This is an uncorrected deficiency previously cited on October 30, 2024.

NOTE: These are the violations, which resulted in the fines; see the attached Statement of Deficiencies for any additional violations.

Attestation (Plan of Correction):

Return the enclosed SOD within 10 calendar days with the following:

- The date you have or will have each deficiency corrected.
- A signature and date attesting that you are taking actions to correct and maintain correction for each cited deficiency.

Return the signed and dated SOD to:

Appeal Rights:

You have two appeal rights: Informal Dispute Resolution (IDR) and an Administrative Hearing. Each has a different request timeline.

Informal Dispute Resolution [RCW 70.128]

YOU MAY:

Request an Informal Dispute Resolution (IDR) meeting within 10 working days after you receive this letter. You must use an IDR Request Form for each citation or enforcement action you plan to dispute. You can find this revised form and guidelines on the IDR Adult Family Home web page at: <https://www.dshs.wa.gov/altsa/idr>.

Provider Process for Choosing a Panel or Traditional IDR:

You may only choose a Panel IDR if you are disputing three or fewer citations or enforcement actions. You may choose a Traditional IDR regardless of the number of citations or enforcement actions you intend to dispute. If you choose a Panel IDR, all documents supporting your dispute must be submitted within 20 working days after you receive this letter. For Panel IDRs, the IDR program will not consider any documents submitted after the 20 working day deadline. For Traditional IDR you should submit documents supporting your dispute at least seven days prior to the date of the IDR meeting.

Send your request and supporting documents to the address below or email to rcsidr@dshs.wa.gov:

If the Office of Financial Recovery has not received your payment within twenty-eight (28) days after receipt of this letter, interest will begin to accrue immediately on the balance, at the rate of one percent per month. If you do not submit a hearing request or make payment within twenty-eight (28) days, the balance due will be recovered.

NOTICE: State and federal law provide protections to defendants who are in military service, and to their dependents. Dependents of a service member are the service member's spouse, the service member's minor child, or and individual for whom the service member provided more than one-half of the individual's support for one hundred eight days immediately preceding an application for relief.

One protection provided is the protection against the entry of a default judgment in certain circumstances. This notice pertains only to a defendant who is a dependent of a member of the National Guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a National Guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days. Other defendants in military service also have protections against default judgments not covered by this notice. If you are the dependent of a member of the national guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days, you should notify the Department in writing of your status as such within twenty days of the receipt of this notice. If you fail to do so, then a court or an administrative tribunal may presume that you are not a dependent of an active duty member of the national guard or reserves, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of
