IMPOSITION OF CIVIL FINES

Dear Licensee:

On January 15, 2026, the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), Residential Care Services completed a follow-up visit at your facility. This letter is formal notice of the imposition of civil fines on the license for your adult family home, located at 2748 Alpine Dr SE, Auburn, by the State of Washington, Department of Social and Health Services, pursuant to the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 70.128.160 and Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 388-76-10940.

The civil fines are based on the following violations of the RCW and/or WAC determined by the department in your adult family home and described in the attached Statement of Deficiencies (SOD) report dated January 15, 2026.

Civil Fines

WAC 388-76-10015 (1) License—Adult family home—Compliance required.

$200.00

The licensee failed to ensure they had a Medical Test Site Waiver license (MTSW) while they performed Blood Glucose (BS) testing for one resident. This failure led to the Adult Family Home performing the BS tests without a MTSW as required.

This is an uncorrected deficiency previously cited on November 12, 2025.

WAC 388-76-10285 (1)(2) Tuberculosis—Two step skin testing.

$200.00

The licensee failed to ensure one staff completed an initial Tuberculosis (TB) skin test within 3 days of hire and failed to ensure two staff completed a second skin test one to three weeks after the first test. These failures placed all residents at risk of potential exposure to TB, a communicable disease that affects the lungs.

This is an uncorrected deficiency previously cited on November 12, 2025.

WAC 388-76-10430 (1)(2)(c)(d) Medication system.

$200.00

The licensee failed to ensure their medication system met all laws and rules for medication administration for one resident and failed to keep the resident's medication log up to date. These failures placed the resident at risk of medication errors.

This is an uncorrected deficiency previously cited on November 12, 2025, for subsection (1)(2)(c).

NOTE: These are the violations, which resulted in the fines; see the attached Statement of Deficiencies for any additional violations.

NOTICE: State and federal law provide protections to defendants who are in military service, and to their dependents. Dependents of a service member are the service member's spouse, the service member's minor child, or and individual for whom the service member provided more than one-half of the individual's support for one hundred eight days immediately preceding an application for relief.

One protection provided is the protection against the entry of a default judgment in certain circumstances. This notice pertains only to a defendant who is a dependent of a member of the National Guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a National Guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days. Other defendants in military service also have protections against default judgments not covered by this notice. If you are the dependent of a member of the national guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days, you should notify the Department in writing of your status as such within twenty days of the receipt of this notice. If you fail to do so, then a court or an administrative tribunal may presume that you are not a dependent of an active duty member of the national guard or reserves, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, and proceed with the entry of an order of default and/or a default judgment without further proof of your status. Your response to the Department about your status does not constitute an appearance for jurisdictional purposes in any pending litigation nor a waiver of your rights.
