IMPOSITION OF CIVIL FINES

Dear Administrator:

On March 10, 2026, the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), Residential Care Services completed a complaint investigation at your facility. This letter constitutes formal notice of civil fines on the license for your assisted living facility, also known as Ocean Shores Assisted Living, located at 1020 Catala Avenue SE, Ocean Shores, by the State of Washington, Department of Social and Health Services. These actions are taken under the authority granted pursuant to Laws of 1998, Chapter 272 and RCW 18.20.190.

The civil fines on the license are based on the following violation of the RCW and/or WAC as described in the attached Statement of Deficiencies (SOD) report dated March 10, 2026.

Civil Fines

WAC 388-78A-2371 (1)(2)(3)(4) Investigations.

$700.00

The licensee failed to investigate, document investigative actions, and protect residents after they became aware of an allegation of abuse for one resident. This failure resulted in the resident's allegation of staff to resident altercation not being investigated, the resident not being protected during the investigation and no documentation of appropriate measures taken to prevent ongoing altercations and placed the resident at risk for ongoing abuse.

This is a recurring deficiency previously cited on August 22, 2023, and April 26, 2023.

WAC 388-78A-2630 (1)(a) Reporting abuse and neglect.

$300.00

The licensee failed to make report to the Department after a staff to resident verbal altercation occurred in the facility for one resident. This failure resulted in the facility failing to report an allegation of verbal abuse to the department and placed the resident at risk of continued ongoing abuse.

This is a recurring deficiency previously cited on August 22, 2023, and March 7, 2024.

NOTE: These are the violations, which resulted in the fines; see the attached Statement of Deficiencies for any additional violations.

NOTICE: State and federal law provide protections to defendants who are in military service, and to their dependents. Dependents of a service member are the service member's spouse, the service member's minor child, or and individual for whom the service member provided more than one-half of the individual's support for one hundred eight days immediately preceding an application for relief.

One protection provided is the protection against the entry of a default judgment in certain circumstances. This notice pertains only to a defendant who is a dependent of a member of the National Guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a National Guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days. Other defendants in military service also have protections against default judgments not covered by this notice. If you are the dependent of a member of the national guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days, you should notify the Department in writing of your status as such within twenty days of the receipt of this notice. If you fail to do so, then a court or an administrative tribunal may presume that you are not a dependent of an active duty member of the national guard or reserves, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, and proceed with the entry of an order of default and/or a default judgment without further proof of your status. Your response to the Department about your status does not constitute an appearance for jurisdictional purposes in any pending litigation nor a waiver of your rights.

If you have any questions, please contact Clinton Fridley, Field Manager, at (360) 450-1218.

Sincerely,

Matt Hauser
