IMPOSITION OF CIVIL FINES

Dear Administrator:

On May 6, 2025, the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), Residential Care Services completed a follow-up visit at your facility. This letter constitutes formal notice of civil fines on the license for your assisted living facility, also known as Cogir of Kirkland, located at 6505 Lakeview Dr, Kirkland, by the State of Washington, Department of Social and Health Services. These actions are taken under the authority granted pursuant to Laws of 1998, Chapter 272 and RCW 18.20.190.

The civil fines on the license are based on the following violation of the RCW and/or WAC as described in the attached Statement of Deficiencies (SOD) report dated May 6, 2025.

Civil Fines

WAC 388-112A-0611 (1)(a)(i)(b)(d)(i)(ii)(2) Who in an assisted living facility is required to complete continuing education training each year, how many hours of continuing education are required, and when must they be completed? $400.00
WAC 388-112A-0720 (2)(a) What are the CPR and first-aid training requirements?
WAC 388-78A-2474 (2)(d)(e) Training and home care aide certification requirements.

The licensee failed to ensure two staff completed all training, as required. This failure placed all 34 residents at risk for decreased quality of care provided by caregivers with incomplete training.

This is an uncorrected deficiency previously cited on March 6, 2025, for WAC 388-78A-2474 subsection (2)(e).

WAC 388-78A-2484 (1)(2) Tuberculosis—Two step skin testing.

$500.00

The licensee failed to complete three staff's skin test or blood test for Tuberculosis (TB), within three days of hire, as required. This failure placed all 34 residents at risk of potential exposure to tuberculosis, an infectious disease.

This is an uncorrected deficiency previously cited on March 6, 2025, for subsections (1) and (2).

WAC 388-78A-2485 (1)(2)(3) Tuberculosis—Positive test result.

$300.00

The licensee failed to ensure that one staff completed all requirements for Tuberculosis (TB) screening following a positive result to a TB skin test. This failure placed all 34 residents at risk of exposure to tuberculosis, an infectious disease.

This is an uncorrected deficiency previously cited on March 6, 2025, for subsections (1), (2), and (3).

NOTE: These are the violations, which resulted in the fines; see the attached Statement of Deficiencies for any additional violations.

NOTICE: State and federal law provide protections to defendants who are in military service, and to their dependents. Dependents of a service member are the service member's spouse, the service member's minor child, or and individual for whom the service member provided more than one-half of the individual's support for one hundred eight days immediately preceding an application for relief.

One protection provided is the protection against the entry of a default judgment in certain circumstances. This notice pertains only to a defendant who is a dependent of a member of the National Guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a National Guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days. Other defendants in military service also have protections against default judgments not covered by this notice. If you are the dependent of a member of the national guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days, you should notify the Department in writing of your status as such within twenty days of the receipt of this notice. If you fail to do so, then a court or an administrative tribunal may presume that you are not a dependent of an active duty member of the national guard or reserves, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, and proceed with the entry of an order of default and/or a default judgment without further proof of your status. Your response to the Department about your status does not constitute an appearance for jurisdictional purposes in any pending litigation nor a waiver of your rights.
