M 122	Continued From page 1 The notice indicated the biennial report and license fee were due to the department by 07/01/2023. On 10/17/2023, the department sent a second notice to Licensee A by email, indicating the biennial report and license fee were past due. The notice indicated if the biennial report and license fee were not received by 07/01/2023, the Division of Quality Assurance will proceed with enforcement action, which may include license revocation. On 10/17/2023, the department received a confirmation of delivery. On 10/17/2023, the department received an email from Licensee A indicating s/he had brought the payment directly to the regional office security desk in the summer of 2023. On 10/18/2023, the department representative emailed Licensee A informing him/her payments were unable to be dropped off at the regional office security desk and to check his/her bank to see if the check had been cashed. Licensee A reported s/he would check with his/her bank and requested a biennial report be sent via email and s/he would send it back. As of 01/22/2024, the department had not heard back from Licensee A. On 11/27/2023, the department sent a third notice to Licensee A by certified letter, indicating the biennial report and license fee were past due. The notice indicated if the biennial report and license fee were not received by 08/30/2023, the Division of Quality Assurance will proceed with enforcement action, which may include license revocation.
